

The 21st Century Leadership Company

L2: Leader of Today

This programme continues the leadership journey for individuals who are ready to explore fundamental leadership competencies and develop their own unique approach

Who should attend?

Leader of Today is ideal for advanced managers of teams who already have the foundations of the basic leadership education and are required to manage a business function and lead teams effectively.

Programme objectives

- To learn about tried and tested models and approaches that will equip participants to identify skills, knowledge and behaviours most likely to achieve desired results in any given situation.
- The participants will develop an understanding of their developmental needs against the Farsight Leadership framework.
- To create a personal development plan to address needs.

Programme outcomes

- The organisation has a leadership team with the skills and knowledge to enable it to meet its business objectives.
- Programme participants have an opportunity to learn, network and take control of their own leadership development plan.
